

Volusia Dining Guide
Famous Philly's Restaurant Feature April 2010

Famous Philly's is taking the Cheesesteak to the next level. What do I mean by that? Well, when you visit Famous Philly's for one of their incredibly good Philly Cheesesteaks, you at some point say to someone or think to yourself " I wish I could make these at home ! " right ? Well now you can with Philly's Famous Marketplace inside Famous Philly's. Thats right ! Now you can come into Famous Philly's and enjoy that great taste Joe Trappuzzano has brought us, then leave with one of his Famous Philly's Cheesesteak kits in your hot little hands. You can have a Cheesesteak or a complete Family Value Cheesesteak Kit to go. If you have visited our area and had the pleasure of enjoying one of these delightful sandwiches, but live out of town or out of state, Guess What ? you can go online and order one of these Family Value packs and have it sent right to your door. Can culinary dreams come true ? You bet they can. Joe has been a visionary for a lot of years and once again, hit a home run with Philly's Famous Cheesesteak kits. Not familiar with Famous Philly's ? Well let me introduce you to them. Are you a Cheesesteak lover ? Boy do we have the place for you ! Famous Philly's, where you can feed that urge and leave feeling satisfied. They prepare them just about any way you can dream of and in sizes you can't even imagine. How about starting with a seven inch roll stuffed full of tender, delicious steak and cheese all the way up to a Belly Busting, TWENTY TWO INCH MONSTER ! Take the Twenty Two Inch Monster Challenge! Eat the Twenty Two inch Monster in Twenty Two minutes and Joe will give it to you free ! You can have a Cheesesteak all the way with sauteed mushrooms, onions, green peppers, and white american cheese or Steak only or with pepperoni, maybe with Taryaki, how about a Bacon Cheesesteak, a Pizza Cheesesteak, the list goes on and on. But, they are not just about their delicious cheesesteaks, oh no! They have wings, and we mean wings in many different flavors. These wings are large too! Jumbos, not small meatless wings, they are a meal ! Got ya feelin that urge yet ? Well thats just the beginning. How about homemade savory salads that you can have with all the fixins like Crispy Chicken, Steak, Turkey Breast, Ceaser. These are a meal by themselves. They even have Pierogies ! Have you ever tasted them ? Wow, it's like a delicious ravioli stuffed full of mashed potatoes and cheese. They are a northeastern staple, not found around here very often. And of course they have the delectable Grilled Deli Sandwiches on your choice of the freshest breads you can find. Hot Corned Beef, Hot Ham and Cheese piled high. A tender, lean, thin sliced Hot Pastrami sandwich that WILL make you write home ! Also available are choices like Taylor Pork Roll sandwiches, 1/4 pound Dietz and Watson Hot Dogs, Hot Sausage sandwiches, Meatball Subs, Hanks Birch Beer, delightful Tasty Cake desserts and more. Ok, You may want to know a little more about the restaurant itself. They are listed in the Great Philly Cheesesteak Book where they are ranked as one of the top 100 Cheesesteak restaurants in the country using their very own Philly's Famous Beef Steak, Delicious ! They are located at the south end of Port Orange where Ridgewood Ave. and Nova Road meet, you can't miss the green Famous Philly's building, it is right at that intersection. When you walk into the restaurant it is loaded with character, HD

TV's all around, sports memorabilia, high top and low tables, fun people, Doo-oop Oldies music every Friday night and they always have the oldies playing while their open. You are greeted, treated and served by the friendliest staff around. If you are a Philadelphia Eagles fan, this place is a bonus for you ! Joe Trappuzzano, the man with his vision, created this haven for us Cheesesteak fanatics. He even ships his rolls in from Philadelphia. I can only say, if you like fun food that is affordable and delightful, come visit Joe and his wonderful staff for an award winning, dining experience. Voted News Journals Readers Choice Best Around Award Nine years in a row. They are family oriented with a children's menu. You can also enjoy your favorite beer or soft drink with your meal. And you can always watch the playoffs or your favorite sports. Come enjoy that feeling of Brotherly love that Philadelphia is famous for and taste that Philly taste that Joe has brought to us. They are located at 5901 South Ridgewood Ave. Port Orange where Nova Road and Ridgewood meet. You can call them at 386-767-6338 or visit them on the web at www.famousphillys.com. Open 7 days a week 11 am. until late.

Fantastic, Fun Food, Great Atmosphere
The Areas Best Cheesesteaks and Deli Sandwiches
Great Staff, Family Friendly
Dine in or Take Out and Delivery, Full Menu
Cold Beer and Soft Drinks, Doo-oop Music Every Friday night and Now Philly's Famous Marketplace